

Embroidery Artwork List

NO	FRONT IMAGE	TITLE / DESCRIPTION
1.		Unsafe pathways This piece reflects the everyday reality of women who walk through the streets carrying not just their belongings, but also the weight of fear. https://bit.ly/4daf62b
2.		Shadows of intolerance – Burned by fear This piece speaks to the painful experience of women persecuted simply for existing outside the boundaries society imposed on them. The image of a woman under attack reflects the fear, suspicion, and violence that have long been directed at those labelled as “witches.” https://bit.ly/3PZLBGA
3.		Voices against gender-based violence This piece captures the collective strength of women rising against violence. The protest is not just a gathering, it is a chorus of voices demanding dignity, safety, and justice. Each raised hand, each step forward, signifies defiance against silence and oppression. https://bit.ly/40TOOKb
4.		The weight of the bottle This piece reflects the hidden link between alcohol abuse and violence within the home. The man’s posture, leaning heavily on the table surrounded by a bottle of alcohol, shows the weight of addiction and the destructive power it can unleash. https://bit.ly/4bNei0M

5.		Violence in transit This piece confronts the harsh reality of gender-based violence in public spaces. The man's aggression represents the everyday dangers women face, even in places that should feel ordinary and safe. https://bit.ly/47iPBrN
6.		Caged bodies – stolen lives This piece confronts the hidden horror of human trafficking. The work represents women stripped of freedom, reduced to shadows of themselves by exploitation and control. https://bit.ly/40PEgMj
7.		Unsafe transactions This piece reflects the uneasy tension women often feel in public spaces. The simple act of queuing at an ATM, an everyday routine, becomes charged with fear when danger lurks nearby. https://bit.ly/4bLd8mB
8.		The weight of the plough This piece reflects the unequal burden carried by women in many communities. The women's bent backs and working hands signify resilience, survival, and the weight of tradition, while the men's distant stance reveals the imbalance of labour and responsibility. https://bit.ly/4uMel5T

9.		The broken promise of home This artwork confronts the hidden reality of abuse within the supposed safety of home. The young girl represents innocence violated by the very environment that should protect her. https://bit.ly/4LPXXgk
10.		Harassed in passing This piece captures the everyday harassment women face in public spaces. The scattered bottles denote the toxic mix of alcohol and aggression, while the man's intrusion represents how women's freedom of movement is constantly disrupted. https://bit.ly/4t9rFj3
11.		Her strength, his struggle This piece explores power, confrontation, and shifting dynamics between genders. The woman's raised hand symbolizes resistance, defiance, and the demand to be heard, while her other hand pulling the man reflects both control and the struggle to assert agency. https://bit.ly/47oVNi1
12.		The child between This piece exposes the devastating impact of domestic conflict on children. The parents' physical struggle symbolises a breakdown of love and trust, while the child's silent presence reveals the deep scars left by witnessing violence. https://bit.ly/4bQCiQJ

13.		Silenced This piece speaks to the silencing of women’s voices. The hand across her mouth signifies control, oppression, and the denial of agency. https://bit.ly/3NpXrJz
14.		Broken shelter This piece confronts the brutal reality of domestic violence and the collapse of safety within the home. The man’s weapon signifies intimidation and fear, while the fleeing woman and child embody survival and the desperate search for refuge. https://bit.ly/4d9OQoC
15.		When culture is weaponised This piece reflects the dynamics of power, privilege, and expectation within relationships shaped by patriarchy. The man seated like a king represents authority and entitlement, while the two wives tending to him embody both care and subservience. https://bit.ly/3NG6qq0
16.		Fear beneath the table The man’s aggression against his wife highlights the abuse of power and the destruction of trust within the home. The child hiding beneath the table embodies fear, confusion, and the silent trauma of witnessing violence. https://bit.ly/3PmUhXA

17.

Justice and despair

This piece captures the collision between authority, fear, and family. The policeman holding the drugs represents the power of law enforcement, while the woman's raised hands embody surrender, desperation, and the anguish of a mother fearing for her children's future.

<https://bit.ly/4d9wLqW>

18.

Nowhere to turn – The weight within

This piece portrays the quiet collapse of strength under the weight of despair. The woman's posture, seated on the floor, face cupped by her hands, embodies exhaustion, grief, and the silent battles carried within.

<https://bit.ly/4bJ7nWu>